East Area Rapist Attacks
20th Victim In Orangevale

The east area rapist attacked his 20th victim early today after confronting a couple in an Orangevale driveway gunpoint and ordering them back into the woman's house. Sacramento County sheriff's deputies said.

Before raping their mothers.

"It was the same guy this morning," Miller said. "It was the east area rapist."

Miller would not say specifically how investigators were certain it was the same man. "We're just saying he uses the same M.O. (method of operation)," Miller said. "We don't"

"The east area rapist's last attack was less than 48 hours earlier, when he awakened a couple in their Glenbrook-College Greens area home about 2 a.m., tied them up, raped the woman and robbed their house for about two hours."

The rapist did not awaken two young children who slept through the Tuesday morning ordeal, deputies said. He has confronted several children in the past, however, and has tied, blindfolded and gagged them."

By JEFF RAIMUNDO
Bee Staff Writer

Gov. Brown's office today asked the Senate Rules Committee to delay confirmation hearings on the reappointment of State Energy Commissioner Ronald Docton, because of anonymous charges of misconduct in office.

The governor's office asked the committee to delay the May 17 hearing for two weeks to give the Finance Department time to review the allegations, said Gray Davis, the governor's chief of staff.

"We felt an obligation both to Docton and to the public to check this out," Davis said. An unsigned letter to the Rules Committee charged Docton, the most
There has been no time passage before there was March 12 in Rancho Cordova. The crest appeared early April 14 for the Tuesday rape occurred last week. The last one before the past four months. The last one before the last one before the rape that occurred in the letters on the pages of rape that occurred.

Arrow locals east area Raper's 2011 attack

This March 5, 1977