Witness Aids Police Artists With Description Of Killer

A new witness has provided Sacramento Sheriff's Department artists with a better description of one of two suspects in the Feb. 22 killing of a young Rancho Cordova couple.

The witness worked with the artist to improve on a sketch of one of the men detectives believe shot Sgt. Brian Maggione, 21, and his wife, Katie, 20, while they walked their dog in the vicinity of La Gloria and La Algeira drives.

The witness said the man wore a brown, waist-length jacket with an orange dragon embroidered on the left front pocket.

The suspect is described as white, in his early twenties, six feet tall, with a slender build and brown hair.

Another white man, 21 to 22 years old, 5 feet 10 inches tall with a neatly trimmed mustache was observed running away from the crime scene and is also wanted by detectives in the murder.
